Hon'ble P.C. Verma, J.

Heard learned counsel for the applicants as well as learned Government Advocate.

The applicant is facing trial for an offence alleged to have been committed by him under Section 147, 148, 149 & 302/34 I.P.C. The trial is proceeding and the main witness of the fact has been examined. Now there is no question of tampering with the evidence or threatening to the witness.

On this fresh ground I allow the third bail application and released the applicant on bail on furnishing adequate sureties to the satisfaction of the trial court concerned where the trial is going on. The trial court may further impose any such condition on the applicant (accused) as may be required during the trial of the case.
